Can-Do Statements and Suggestions

Listening CEFR Level: B1.2

What does B1.2 mean? This means you can:

- Identify the most important information about people, places, objects, and activities in everyday conversations on familiar topics.
- Follow the main points of extended discussions on familiar everyday topics.
- Understand simple instructions or descriptions of what to do, or what steps to follow to complete a task or assignment.
- Understand the main points of talks on familiar topics.
- Follow short talks on topics that contain some detailed information.

What can I do to continue to improve my English level? Here are some suggestions:

- Practice listening to short conversations when speakers talk about everyday activities, such as work and school, or what they do and don't like.
- Try to focus on the important information about people, places, objects, and activities in longer conversations.
- Practice listening to radio programs, as well as TV shows and online videos where the visuals help show what people are saying.
- Listen to conversations where people have different opinions on a topic.
- Watch online videos where people talk about their experiences and opinions.

Reading CEFR Level: B1.1

What does B1.1 mean? This means you can:

- Understand most factual information in texts on familiar subjects.
- Find the meaning of parts of a text by focusing on the meaning of the whole text.
- Understand texts about events and experiences, even when they are quite detailed.
- Follow a line of argument or the sequence of events in a text by focusing on the logical connectors and time references.
- Understand descriptions of places, events, feelings, and people's opinions in a wide range of text types.

What can I do to continue to improve my English level? Here are some suggestions:

- Practice scanning longer texts to locate the key information they contain more quickly.
- Try reading academic articles and reports about problems and issues in the world to identify and understand other points of view.
- Spend more time reading longer texts for pleasure.
- Take note of and learn more colloquial and idiomatic expressions when you read texts about different topics.
- Practice reading texts that express strong opinions on topics, and identify how different writers present their opinions.
